PART I-A
POST-WAR ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION

Post-War Economic Reconstruction.

Serial No. 1.

Press Note, dated the 6th June, 1941.

Post-War Economic Reconstruction.

Press Note, dated the 6th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

After the experience of twenty years ago, no argument is necessary to support the statement that, following upon the great and steadily increasing dislocation of economic, and particularly industrial, conditions caused by the war, an equally great, but more abrupt, dislocation of those conditions is to be expected on the return of a state of peace.

Industries that are now being developed as rapidly and extensively as possible will no longer be actively engaged upon urgent war contracts; labour that has been employed on those industries will become redundant; and stocks of materials and finished articles prepared for war uses will become surplus and their disposal will have to be arranged.

Although the details of these problems cannot be accurately forecast, their broad outline is plainly visible, and the Government of India have come to the conclusion that it is not too soon to begin to survey them while there is yet time to do this without incurring the perils which attend hasty improvisation, so that they may be prepared with their plans when the anticipated emergency comes.

The Government of India have accordingly decided to appoint a Reconstruction Committee, to be presided over by the Hon'ble the Commerce Member, the other members of which will be the Economic Adviser to the Government of India and representatives of the Finance Department, the Commerce Department, the Defence Department, the Department of Education, Health and Lands, the Labour Department, the Department of Supply and the Railway Board.

This committee will, it is expected, arrange for the bulk of its detailed work to be done by sub-committees appointed to deal with various problems, and its main functions will therefore be to direct and coordinate the work of the sub-committees. It is further intended that persons with special knowledge, whether official or non-official, shall be added to the various sub-committees.

In due course, arrangements will be made to bring the main committee and the sub-committees into touch with Provincial and State Governments and to enable them to obtain the advice of industrialists and other business men, who will be in a position to give valuable assistance on the diverse problems which will arise from time to time.

The Government of India consider that the most effective way of bringing expert opinion to bear is by way of inviting its collaboration with reference to specific problems and not by enlarging the main committee, especially as experience shows that an unduly large committee cannot function efficiently.

The first meeting of the main committee is likely to be held at an early date and it will then be asked to consider the appointment of sub-committees and the assignment of tasks to them.

Post-War Economic Reconstruction.

Serial No. 2.

Press Note, dated the 24th June, 1941.

Post-War Economic Reconstruction.

Press Note, dated the 24th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The first meeting of the Reconstruction Committee, the formation of which was announced a short while ago, took place at Simla on the 23rd June. The Commerce Member was in the Chair, and the following officers of Government who are members of the Committee attended:—

Mr. C. E. Jones (Finance).

Sir Alan Lloyd (Commerce).

Mr. C. M. G. Ogilvie (Defence).

Mr. E. M. Jenkins (Supply).

Mr. H. C. Prior (Labour).

Mr. J. D. Tyson (Education, Health and Lands).

Sir Leonard Wilson (Chief Commissioner, Railways).

Dr. T. E. Gregory (Economic Adviser), and

Major-General W. H. G. Baker.

Mr. T. S. Pillay and Mr. B. N. Adarkar were also present.

2. The meeting was concerned primarily with questions of organisation and arrived at the following conclusions. In order to avoid any misunderstanding as to the powers and significance of the various groups which would be called upon to elaborate plans, it was decided to change the title of the Reconstruction Committee into that of "Reconstruction Committee (Co-ordination)". The Committee agreed that the following Committees should be set up:—

(i) Reconstruction Committee (Labour and Demobilization).

(ii) Reconstruction Committee (Disposals and Contracts).

(iii) Reconstruction Committee (Public Works and Government purchases).

(iv) Reconstruction Committee (Trade, International Trade Policy and Agricultural Developments).

It was decided that these four planning Committees should be presided over—in the absence of the Commerce Member—by the Defence, Supply, Labour and Commerce Secretaries respectively. These Committees will consist of representatives of Departments of the Central Government, representatives of Provincial and State Governments, commercial and industrial representatives and representatives of Labour according to the nature of the work involved in each committee. The meeting also approved of the suggestion that a Consultative Committee of Economists drawn from various Universities in the country and presided over by the Economic Adviser should be set up. The Reconstruction Committee (Co-ordination) will receive the reports of the other Committees and will be responsible for giving guidance, where necessary, to the work of the other

Post-War Economic Reconstruction.

Committees. The recommendations of the Committees will be considered by the Governor General in Council and such action as may be considered necessary taken thereon.

I. Labour and Demobilisation.—(a) It will be necessary to inaugurate at once a proper statistical service relating to the increasing volume of employment in the industries primarily affected by war demands, e.g., Ordnance and Clothing Factories, Engineering, Textiles, etc.

(b) It will be necessary to consider how far labour at present employed in a given direction can be re-employed in other directions without re-training: what, if any, arrangements for re-training can be instituted and what the direction of retraining should be: finally, whether any arrangements for relief works etc., will be necessary and, if so, where and under what conditions of pay, terms of employment, etc.

(c) It will also be necessary to keep in close touch with the Army Authorities, so that their plans of demobilisation should not accentuate the problem of employment on the cessation of hostilities. It would appear desirable, therefore, that the Army should keep accurate record of the former occupations of recruits.

(d) It will be necessary to consider carefully how far existing facilities by means of which those in search of employment are put in touch with available jobs are adequate in the light of an employment crisis such as may confront the country at the end of the war or thereafter.

II. Disposals and war contracts.—It will clearly be necessary to make arrangements so as to prevent the whole economic structure from being demoralized by a sudden cessation of war production. The aim should be to taper off war production as commercial demand expands. Arrangements will also have to be made for the orderly disposal of stocks already on hand or accruing under war contracts, so as not to break prices and check incipient demand for new production manifesting itself.

III. Public Works and Government Purchasing Policies.—It is not necessary to labour the point that acceleration, or, contrariwise, the decline of public works expenditure, and/or expenditure by Government departments generally, can powerfully influence the labour market and the economic situation generally. It is, therefore, a matter of great importance to arrive at an agreed public works policy, the object of which would be to accelerate public works as the various demands for war purposes taper off. It will be obvious that different types of public works will give very different degrees of employment, direct and indirect, according to the types of labour, materials etc., involved and investigations of these aspects of the matter will be required before an adequate policy can be evolved. It will also be necessary to take into account the possible acceleration of e.g., housing projects and of considering ways and means of stimulating private capital construction as fully as possible.

IV. Trade, Industrial, and Agricultural aspects of the immediate post-war situation.—The formulation of long-term trade and industrial policies is properly a matter for Government as a whole. But it is clear that practically every country in the world will be faced with an identical problem at the end of the war: and the practicability of the emergency measures adopted by each of them will in part depend upon the general attitude assumed towards international trade. The importance of watching the development of thought and action in this field is particularly great for countries such as India, whose national income is liable to sharp fluctuations through changes in the level of international prices.

One special problem arising immediately out of the war situation also requires to be considered. It has been pointed out that the gradual improvement in the shipping situation which is to be expected at the end of the war will tend to increase the volume of imports. This will affect the position of industries which have expanded as a consequence of the present quasi-monopoly held by them and will raise the question of redundant plant, or, alternatively, the question of what tariff measures will be necessary or desirable, to safeguard the position of such industries consistently with due appreciation of the position of the consumer under the then existing circumstances.

It will also be clear that changes in international trade policies and in the tariff policies of different countries will greatly affect the position of the growers of particular crops, e.g., cotton, wheat, oil-seeds. It will, therefore, be necessary to consider not only the direct impact effects, but also the possibilities of diverting agricultural production along new lines, if international developments should appear to be, on the whole, unfavourable to the maintenance of the present scale of production of internationally traded agricultural products.

Press Note, dated the 17th June, 1941.

Central Import Trade Control Organisation.

Press Note, dated the 17th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

News has arrived in India showing that in order to secure the release for export from the U. S. A. of many requirements of industry, such as non-ferrous metals, lubricating oil, machinery and tools, it has become or is likely soon to become necessary for the would-be importer to obtain priority certificates from the Government of India. It is already well known that in many similar cases imports from the United Kingdom cannot be obtained without recommendations from the Government of India.

A problem has thus been raised on a much wider scale similar to that which was raised about six months ago in connection with steel and which led to the establishment of the Office of Steel Controller. It is clearly impossible to settle the problem by granting quotas based on past imports as in the case of those less essential imports to which, with a very few exceptions, the existing system of import control has been confined.

Difficulties of supply in addition to stringency in the matter of foreign exchange facilities make it doubly necessary to secure that such imports as can be obtained and can be allowed after war supply needs have been satisfied are directed to the most useful purposes.

In order to deal with this subject, a central organisation must be set up under the Commerce Department which can assess the merits of conflicting claims for assistance from all parts of the country; and to this end, the Government of India have decided to appoint a Chief Controller of Imports, and have selected for this post, Mr. Ram Chandra, C.I.E., M.B.E., I.C.S., at present Commissioner of the Ambala Division in the Punjab. The names and designations of other officers to assist him will be announced later, as also details of the procedure to be followed in applying for import licences and priority recommendations.

Indian Trade Mission to Iran.

Press Note, dated the 28th July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The Government of India have decided to depute Mr. Mohammad Hashim Ismail, Indian Trade Commissioner, Mombassa, who has recently returned to this country on leave, to Iran on a short exploratory trade mission.

It has been suggested to the Government of India that present conditions are favourable to the appointment of an Indian Trade Agent or Commissioner in Iran, and they believe that such an appointment would be welcomed by the Government of Iran. The Government of India feel that in the first instance it is desirable that an official with the necessary commercial experience should visit the country on an exploratory mission before they commit themselves to a regular appointment.

They have accordingly decided to depute Mr. Ismail to visit Iran for some two months as their Trade Representative. His mission will be to explore the Iranian market for Indian products, particularly cotton piecegoods and furnish a report to the Government of India on the basis of which they will decide whether to appoint an Indian Agent or Commissioner in Iran.

to British destinations other than United Kingdom, otherwise than through the Ministry of Supply, would do well to apply to Canadian Transport Controller before despatch of goods to ports for shipping instructions.

His Department is the only organisation in Canada with power to issue priority orders over Canadian Railroad, Inland Water Carriers, etc., and if he is not informed beforehand of the despatch of consignments, he learns of traffic when shippers appeal to him for help out of an impasse. This naturally causes accumulation of goods at ports and undue hardship to all concerned.

It is accordingly suggested to all importers of Canadian goods in India that they should ask their suppliers first to obtain from the Canadian Transport Controller shipping instructions and priority orders before actually despatching goods to port for shipment.

Serial No. 45.Import Trade Control: Control extended.Import Trade Control: Control extended.

Press Note, dated the 20th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

Import contröol over a large number of goods is being announced in a notification in the Gazette of India Extraordinary on August 23, 1941. The controlled goods are classified into Parts A, and B, of the Schedule to the notification: In Part A, are included almost all the goods that are under control already; Part B, contains a very large number of fresh items.

Excepting for a few articles such as dyes, newsprint and aluminium, import control has hitherto been confined to goods the imports of which could be curtailed without damage to any essential Indian interests. It is not necessary or practicable in the case of such goods to look beyond the importers; and it has been sufficient to allot quotas to them on the basis of their past imports. This principle will be maintained in respect of goods in Part A, of the Schedule.

It has now become necessary to extend control to imports of machinery and other industrial requirements. (Part B, of the Schedule). This necessity has arisen not only because of the growing need for the conservation of exchange with difficult currencies but also because supplies, especially from U. S. A., of many of the goods concerned are becoming increasingly restricted with the result that before allowing export the U. S. A. Government require certificates to be furnished from the Indian Government that the goods represent essential requirements. Further, by the passing of the Lease/Lend legislation recently in U. S. A. it has become necessary to base the Indian purchases both Government and private, of certain American goods which are essential requirements of India to the maximum extent possible, on the Lease/Lend arrangement; this involves inter-Governmental dealing; and in the case of such goods, it will be necessary before issuing a licence for importation in the ordinary way to consider whether the transaction should not be converted into an inter-Governmental one.

The problem has therefore become not only one of controlling the flow of imports in order to employ India's resources by way of foreign exchange in the most useful way but also of securing essential supplies from the only source open to India. In order to secure such supplies the criterion of essentiality in war-time conditions must be satisfied; it follows that imports must be regulated with regard to the needs of industries in India rather than to the interests of established importers. In order that it may be operated with justice to conflicting claims, as supplies are not likely to be unlimited, it has been found necessary to centralize the work of granting import licences in regard to such goods (Part B, of the Schedule) in the hands of a single authority. The Central Government have accordingly created for the purpose the post of the Chief Controller of Imports under the Commerce Department; the appointment of Mr. Ram Chandra, C.I.E., M.B.E., I.C.S., to this post was announced some time ago. Mr. Ram Chandra will be assisted by Mr. Elwin, O.B.E., I.C.S., as his Deputy and Mr. Menon formerly Principal Appraiser, Calcutta Custom House, as his technical Adviser. His Office is at Imperial Secretariat Buildings, New Delhi.

For the convenience of importers and for their information it is being notified at Custom Houses and in leading newspapers at Ports that applications for certain classes of goods in Part B, of the Schedule should be made in the prescribed form direct to the Chief Controller of Imports, New Delhi; while for others in Part B, applications should, for the present, be made to him through the Import Trade Controllers at ports, who will also continue to be the licensing authorities for goods in Part A, of the Schedule.

Plant and Machinery from United Kingdom: Import recommendation necessary.

Press Note, dated the 21st August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

Information has been received from the United Kingdom that order for manufacturing plant and machinery will not be accepted by manufacturers in the United Kingdom unless they are supported by the Government of India. In order to avoid misdirection of effort in the preparation of detailed specifications and estimates which may never be acted upon, it is further laid down that enquiries for the supply of such goods should not be made before such support has been assured. For these reasons, firms, agencies and other importers, who desire to make enquiries to place orders in the United Kingdom for machinery and plant, must apply for the necessary recommendation to the Government of India.

Applications should be made to the Director-General, Munitions Production, Calcutta, who for the present will deal not only with cases of plant and machinery required for industries engaged wholly in the production of goods required for defence or war supply purposes, but also with cases of plant and machinery required for other industries. In dealing with the latter he will act in accordance with such instructions as may be issued to him from time to time at the instance of the Commerce Department of the Government of India. The question of permanent arrangements is still under consideration.

Applications for assistance should be confined to the manufacture or supply of plant and machinery (other than machine tools covered by the Machine Tool Control Order, 1941) required for use in a factory as defined in the Factories Act, 1934. The applications should be made on forms which will be supplied on request by the Director General, Munitions Production, Calcutta, and should include the following particulars: the name of importer in India, the name of Indian customer, the name of shipper or manufacturer in the United Kingdom on whom the order is proposed to be placed or has been placed, full description of machinery or plant required, the value and purpose for which required, etc.

Circular No. By. 17, dated the 7th June 1941, issued by the Reserve Bank of India, Exchange Control Department:—

With reference to the Exchange Control Circular No. By. 9, dated the 16th April, 1941, wherein Authorised Dealers were informed that the opening of credits covering the import of licensed steel goods would be approved even if the period was in excess of three months. Authorised Dealers are further advised that the Reserve Bank will approve, in certain cases, the opening of credits providing for payments against manufacturers' certificates, railway Bills of Lading, warehouse receipts or on 'free alongside' terms in cases where the American suppliers refuse to do business except on this basis. Such concessions will normally only be granted in the case of steel goods the import of which has already been licensed but the Reserve Bank will be prepared to consider the opening of credits on this basis and for longer periods than three months covering the import of other commodities or machinery provided it is satisfied that the import of these goods is essential and that they cannot be obtained unless purchased on these terms. Firms applying for permission to open credits on these terms should be instructed to refer to the Steel Controller or to the Controller of Supplies, Bombay, for a certificate to the effect that he considers that the purchase of the goods in question is necessary in the interests of the country and that he considers that the Reserve Bank is justified in allowing a credit to be opened on the terms stated.

An adjustment will be made for the difference between the interest accrued on the securities tendered for conversion and those to be issued,
i.e.,—

- (a) if the accrued interest, on the date of application for conversion on the loan tendered for conversion, is less than the accrued interest at the same date on the loan to be issued in exchange, the applicant will be required to pay in cash or by cheque an amount equal to the difference;
- (b) if the accrued interest on the date of application, on the loan tendered for conversion, is greater than the accrued interest on the loan to be issued in exchange, the applicant will receive an amount representing such difference at the time of delivery of the new securities.

Issue of rupee counterparts to repatriated Sterling Loans.

Press Communiqué, dated the 9th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Finance Department:—

In his speech introducing the Budget the Hon'ble the Finance Member explained that, as an interim measure pending detailed consideration, counterparts bearing the same rate of interest and with the same maturity would be issued immediately in lieu of sterling loans repatriated, and that permanent arrangements would be decided upon later. The conversion scheme announced today by which holders of the two $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. sterling loans repatriated, namely $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. 1950-55 and $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. 1958-68, are given the option of converting them into 3 per cent. loans of about the same maturity, on terms corresponding to the present market prices of the securities in question, forms part of the more permanent arrangements foreshadowed.

The total face value of the Indian sterling stock cancelled under the repatriation scheme up to May, 16, 1941, is just under £70 million of which the greater part (nearly £42 million) is in the form of $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. stock. Of the remainder 5 per cent. stock amounts to £4 $\frac{1}{2}$ million and the balance is divided roughly equally (about £7 $\frac{1}{2}$ millions each) between 4 per cent, $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent, and 3 per cent, stock. The face value of the rupee counterparts created amounts to about 93 crores of which about 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ crores have been taken up by the public and the balance divided approximately equally between Government and the Reserve Bank.

In deciding the permanent arrangements to deal with this question Government have had two aims in view, namely: firstly, to reduce as far as possible the stock of counterparts bearing a high nominal rate of interest and secondly, to leave a sufficient volume of counterparts to maintain marketability in the interests of those who have accepted repayment of sterling loans in this form. They have also taken into consideration the improbability of the market being able, within a reasonable period of time, to absorb as much as 80 crores of counterparts and the possibility of the continued retention of surpluses judged unsalable acting, to however limited an extent, as a depressing factor on the market. In pursuance of those objects they have decided to offer conversion terms in respect of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cents, and with regard to the others, to cancel part of the stocks held by themselves and the Reserve Bank.

Circular No. A. D.-44, dated the 16th June 1941 issued by the Reserve Bank of India, Exchange Control Department.

D.-33 of 1941, regarding blocking of the accounts of all residents in Iraq is cancelled and Iraq accounts are released. The accounts of residents in Iraq must be regarded as 'non-resident' and transactions thereon conducted in accordance with regulations laid down to cover operations on the accounts of non-residents in free sterling countries (see circular A. D.-26 of 1941).

2. Authorised dealers are advised that there are no restrictions on transfers between the non-resident accounts of Iraq banks in India and those in the United Kingdom and that authorised dealers may buy sterling freely from Iraq banks for the purpose of providing them with rupee funds.

Notice to Steamer Agents.

The Government of India Notification No. F.-1 (65)-F./41', of the 31st May, 1941, expressly excludes the personal effects of travellers from the operation of the notification and personal effects may be taken out of India either in the form of accompanied or unaccompanied baggage without the necessity of a passenger declaring that the foreign exchange proceeds of the goods will be disposed of in a manner approved by the Reserve Bank of India. Please draw the attention of intending travellers to the fact that the articles covered by this exemption are strictly limited to bona fide personal effects and that articles such as carpets, curios, furniture etc., will not be regarded by the Customs officers as exempted. The shipment of such goods will only be permitted if a licence has been obtained from the Reserve Bank of India by the intending traveller.

2. Intending travellers, therefore, who are taking with them articles other than bona fide personal effects should be directed to apply through an authorised dealer in foreign exchange on Form J, to the Reserve Bank for permission to ship in the same way as they have to apply for permission to take out jewellery. The total value of baggage other than personal effects allowed to each traveller inclusive of any jewellery will be the same as that laid down in the Reserve Bank of India Notification No. 1 of the 11th January, 1941.

In continuation of the Reserve Bank notice of the 26th June 1941, regarding the amount of baggage other than bona fide personal effects that travellers may be permitted to take with them out of India, steamer agents are advised that foreign nationals returning to their own countries may be permitted in certain cases to take amounts in jewellery and baggage in excess of the limits laid down in the Reserve Bank Notification No. 1, of the 11th January 1941, on application being made to the Reserve Bank of India.

New One Rupee notes.

Press Communiqué, dated the 17th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Finance Department:—

New Government of India one-rupee notes, bearing the portrait of King George VI and printed at the Nasik Security Press, will shortly be issued through the Reserve Bank of India. The new notes are slightly larger than the existing issue and measure 4" by 2½". They are printed on mould-made paper.

On the obverse is a relief watermark portrait of His Majesty the King Emperor on the left of the note, facing right. This is enclosed in a clear unprinted window surmounted by a simple frame with a scroll device above and a lotus border below. On the top right-hand corner there is the obverse of the King George VI silver rupee in a rich grey colour supported by a scroll and surmounting the signature of the Honourable Mr. C. E. Jones, C.S.I., C.I.E., I.C.S., Secretary of the Finance Department.

The back of the note bears, in the top left-hand corner, the reverse of the 1940, King George VI rupee coin in the same grey colour, supported by leaf scroll work containing the value "ONE RUPEE" surmounted by the figure "1". On the right is the clear watermark window in a simple frame surmounted by the Imperial Cipher.

In the centre of the note, below the heading "GOVERNMENT OF INDIA", appears the value in words in the seven principal Indian languages. The figure "1" appears also in the right and left-hand top corners of the note. The whole design is contained within a border of grey geometrical tracery, and is over-printed with a rainbow of fine line work in mauve, orange-brown and green.

The issue of these new notes will not affect the present issue of Government of India one rupee notes of the 1935, King George V, pattern which will continue to be full legal tender.

Excess Profits Double Taxation (India and the United Kingdom) Rules.

No. 18, dated the 21st June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Finance Department (Central Revenues):—

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 11 of the Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940 (XV of 1940), the Central Government is pleased to make the following rules for the granting of relief in cases where, in respect of any profits of any business, Excess Profits Tax has been paid under that Act and Excess Profits Tax has been paid or, if there were no National Defence Contribution, would have been paid under the law in force in the United Kingdom.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Excess Profits Double Taxation (India and the United Kingdom) Rules.

2. In these Rules—

(i) the expression “Indian excess profits tax” means any excess profits tax payable in accordance with the provisions of the Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940;

(ii) “United Kingdom excess profits tax” means any excess profits tax payable under the law in force in the United Kingdom, or, where National Defence Contribution and Not Excess Profits Tax is payable, the amount of Excess Profits Tax that would be payable if there were no National Defence Contribution;

(iii) the expression “chargeable accounting period” has in British India the meaning assigned to it in sub-section (6) of section 2 of the Excess Profits Tax Act, 1940, and in the United Kingdom the meaning assigned to it in section 22 of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1939.

3. Any reference in these Rules to the lower of the two rates shall, where the rates are equal, be construed as a reference to either of those rates.

4. These Rules shall have effect in respect of Indian excess profits tax charged for any chargeable accounting period in respect of which, under the law in force in the United Kingdom, relief is to be given in respect of the payment of Indian Excess Profits Tax.

5. If the person carrying on a business in any chargeable accounting period proves to the satisfaction of the Excess Profits Tax Officer that he has paid, in respect of any profits of the business in that period, Indian excess profits tax and that he has also paid, in respect of those profits, United Kingdom excess profits tax—

(i) there shall be computed the amounts of excess profits tax which would be payable in British India and the United Kingdom respectively, if excess profits tax in the other country and National Defence Contribution in the United Kingdom were disregarded except in computing capital;

Finance.

- (ii) the amount of relief to be given in British India shall be the same proportion of the lesser of the amounts so computed as the amount so computed for British India bears to the sum of the two amounts so computed;
- (iii) if the amount so computed either for British India or for the United Kingdom, is found to have been incorrect (whether by reason of a subsequent deficiency of profits or for any other reason), the amount so computed shall be recalculated and the relief in British India revised accordingly.

6. Where the chargeable accounting periods differ in British India and the United Kingdom, the tax chargeable for such periods shall be apportioned on a time basis to co-terminus periods as hereinafter defined, and relief shall be allowed under these Rules for those periods.

For this purpose, except so far as the Central Board of Revenue and the Board of Inland Revenue otherwise agree,—

- (a) the first of the co-terminus periods shall commence on the first day on which double taxation commenced, and each succeeding, co-terminus period shall commence at the expiration of the period immediately preceding; and
- (b) each of such co-terminus periods shall end at the end of the chargeable accounting period, within which it commences, and, if the chargeable accounting periods differ for the purposes of the excess profits tax of the two countries, then at the end of that one of the chargeable accounting periods that ends first.

7 For the purpose of these Rules the liability to excess profits tax of a principal company of a group of interconnected companies shall be taken to be the liability of that company in respect of its own business only.

Where, however, excess profits tax payable in respect of the business carried on by a subsidiary company is assessed on the principal company, relief shall be allowed to the subsidiary company as if the excess profits tax liability attributable to the business of the subsidiary company were separately assessed upon that company.

8. Every application for a refund of excess profits tax under this Notification shall be made to the Excess Profits Tax Officer of the district or circle in which the applicant is chargeable to excess profits tax. Such application may be presented by the applicant in person or by a duly authorised agent or may be sent by post, and shall be in the form prescribed in Rule 15 of the Excess Profits Tax Rules, 1940.

Blocked Accounts—payment to non-residents.

Circular No. A. D. 49, dated the 18th July 1941 (Issued by the Reserve Bank of India).

Attention of authorised dealers is invited to the Government of India Notification No. 931-O. R./41, dated the 12th July, 1941, promulgating a New Rule 92-B under the Defence of India Rules; a copy of the notification is enclosed for information.* In terms of the powers granted under this rule, the Reserve Bank of India hereby authorises all authorised dealers in foreign exchange to open and maintain blocked accounts on conditions as mentioned below and as may be advised hereafter.

2. Where an application is made to the Reserve Bank for a remittance to a non-resident, the Reserve Bank may direct that payment may be made to a blocked account in India and such payment to the extent of the sum credited will be a good discharge of the person making the payment.

3. A blocked account may not be opened in the name of a resident, unless jointly with a non-resident, without prior permission of the Reserve Bank of India. All blocked accounts in the names of the resident when opened should be advised to the Reserve Bank of India.

4. Payments to non-residents in respect of the following items will normally be permitted only to blocked accounts.

- (a) Rupee proceeds of securities drawn for repayment or maturing or surrendered after the 12th July for encashment before maturity.
- (b) Amounts to be distributed following the sale or winding up of companies or the dissolutions of partnerships.
- (c) Legacies and similar payments.
- (d) Capital payments arising out of settlements.
- (e) Proceeds of the sale of real estate furniture, pictures, jewellery or other moveable assets in British India other than goods imported for sale in the ordinary course of trade.
- (f) Other payments of a capital nature.

5. Where the Reserve Bank of India directs that payment may be made to a blocked account only, Form A will be returned with the words "Unapproved; payment may be made to a blocked account only". The paying banker may then communicate the decision of the Reserve Bank of India to the customer and advise him that payment may be made either:—

* See Serial Nos. 67 and 68 in this Series.

- (a) by a banker's payment marked "Payable to blocked account of only", or
- (b) by a crossed cheque or warrant drawn in favour of the beneficiary and marked with the words "Payable to blocked account of payee only". Where such a cheque or warrant is sent to a non-resident it is desirable that the payee should arrange for the opening of a blocked account at an approved bank, i.e., a bank authorised to deal in foreign exchange in British India, before forwarding the cheque to that bank for collection. Form A-7 with the name of the payee as the transferee and clearly marked "Blocked Account" must be submitted to the Reserve Bank for prior approval. Collecting bankers must endorse cheques, warrants or drafts so marked "Received for the credit of blocked account at (Bank and Branch)" before presenting them for payment. The paying banker may not pay such instruments unless they are properly marked and unless Form A-7 has been approved by the Reserve Bank of India for payment to a blocked account. After payment has been made he must endorse the Form on the back "Payment made to blocked account at (Bank and Branch)" and must check that the blocked account is at an approved bank. The form should then be submitted to the Reserve Bank of India in the usual way. Amounts which the Reserve Bank of India has directed should be placed to "Blocked Accounts" must be immobilised immediately pending the opening of the account, and may not be used for any other purpose except with the prior approval of the Reserve Bank of India.

6. Balances in blocked accounts under instructions from the account-holder may be placed on fixed deposit with the bank in which the account is held or may be invested in trustee-securities expressed payable in rupees provided the securities are bought through the bank keeping the account and registered in the name of the account holders, the addresses being their permanent residential addresses outside the sterling area; alternatively securities so purchased may be registered in the names of the banks keeping the accounts or their nominees in India. The securities must, in no case, be held in bearer form. Securities purchased in this way may not be transferred out of the name of the stock-holder without permission from the Reserve Bank of India.

7. Except as mentioned in paragraph 6 above balances standing to the credit of blocked accounts may not be operated upon without the prior approval of the Reserve Bank of India. Any alteration in the name of the account other than its transfer to a trustee in bankruptcy of the account-holder will require special permission of the Reserve Bank of India.

8. The banks authorised to hold blocked accounts must make a quarterly return in duplicate to the Reserve Bank of India, the first return to be made as at the close of business on the 30th September, 1941, showing:—

- (i) the total balances standing to the credit of blocked accounts.
- (ii) the total new credits during the period covered by the return.

Finance.

(iii) the total funds debited in respect of purchases of approved securities; and

(iv) the total funds, if any, dealt with in other ways with the approval of the Reserve Bank of India.

9. The Reserve Bank has already blocked certain accounts; those authorised dealers who are maintaining such accounts should immediately make a return showing the total balance outstanding to the credit of such accounts as at the close of business on the 11th July, 1941, and they should note that no operations on these accounts should be conducted without the prior approval of the Reserve Bank as laid down in this circular and as may be advised hereafter.

Authorised dealers in Cotton.

Circular dated the 22nd/24th July, 1941 (Issued by the Reserve Bank of India, Exchange Control Dept.).

A reference is invited to paragraph 5 of the memorandum to Authorised Dealers in Cotton issued by the Reserve Bank of India, Exchange Control Department, Bombay on the 4th November, 1939, which provided that the facilities granted under the memorandum are subject to restriction should circumstances compel the Indian Exchange Control to do so. It has now been decided that the sale of foreign exchange to enable foreign cotton firms operating in the Bombay market to withdraw profits will only be permitted in the case of direct hedge or straddle operations against cotton in a foreign market. Exchange will not be granted, nor will rupees be allowed to be credited to non-resident accounts in respect of profits arising from transactions such as straddles between one type of Indian cotton and another or purchases of Indian cotton for one delivery against sales for another. Outstanding straddles of this nature may remain open and any profits that accrue on behalf of foreign operators may be remitted, but no future business in local straddles for foreign parties should be undertaken.

* Serial No. 56, Fourth Series.

2. Any licensed dealer in cotton wishing to remit profits gained in this market on behalf of foreign operators must apply to the Reserve Bank through an Authorised Dealer in foreign exchange giving full particulars of the transactions out of which the profits arose. Sanction will be given for remittance of profits on any business outstanding on 22nd July, 1941, but remittance will only be allowed in the case of business entered into after that date provided the transaction represents a direct hedge or straddle between the foreign market and India.

3. Special facilities will however be given for the remittances of differences gained on cotton purchased for export and hedged in this market by foreign buyers.

A copy of the circular dated the 24th July, 1941,* issued to authorised dealers in cotton in India is enclosed for your information. You will observe that it has been decided not to allow authorised dealers in foreign exchange to sell to authorised dealers in cotton any foreign exchange for the settlement of differences arising from cotton operations in foreign markets entered into after 24th July, 1941. Similarly the remittance of profits gained in India by foreign operators in this market arising from transactions entered into after 24th July, 1941, is prohibited. Authorised dealers should therefore note that all applications for remittances of foreign exchange in connection with the cotton operations must receive the prior approval of the Reserve Bank.

Post Office Ten-year Defence Savings Certificates: certain amendments.

No. D./3400-P.T./41, dated the 7th August 1941, issued by the Government of India—Financial Adviser, Communications:—

The following amendment in the Notification of the Government of India in the Finance Department, No. D./C.-230-F., dated the 4th June 1940, relating to the issue of Post Office Ten-year Defence Savings Certificates, is published for general information.

I. For paragraphs 2 to 7 of the said Notification the following shall be substituted, namely:—

PURCHASE OF DEFENCE SAVINGS CERTIFICATES.

2. (1) Post Office 10-year Defence Savings Certificates are obtainable at issue prices of Rs. 10, Rs. 50, Rs. 100, Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000. Their purchase must be made by presenting a form of application which is prescribed for the purpose and which may be obtained at any post office doing savings bank business. The application may be made by a single person or in the joint names of two persons only, and may be tendered either personally or by a messenger. Defence Savings Certificates purchased by joint holders are issued on a special form and are of two classes; (A) payable to both the holders jointly or to any one of them with the consent of the other, and (B) payable to either of the joint holders.

(2) Defence Savings Certificates can be purchased either wholly with sums withdrawn from money already deposited in the investor's Post Office Savings Bank account, or with cash or a cheque on a recognised bank separately tendered for the purpose, or partly with sums withdrawn from savings bank deposit and partly with cash or cheque or both. The full issue price must be paid at the time of purchase.

Explanation.—When a savings bank depositor wishes to purchase Defence Savings certificates out of the amount at credit of his account, it will not be necessary for him to draw the amount and pay it. All that he should do is to fill up an application for withdrawal and tender it and his pass book along with his application for purchase of Defence Savings Certificates. The withdrawal will be entered in the pass book which will be returned to him when the Defence Savings Certificates are made over to him.

(3) When an application is presented at a head or sub-post office, a Defence Savings certificate signed by the head or sub-postmaster as the case may be, will be handed to the investor across the counter of the post office. When an application is presented at a branch office a Defence Savings Certificate will be obtained for the investor from the head office or the sub-office to which the branch office is subordinate. If payment is made by means of a cheque, the certificate will be delivered after the cheque has been cashed by the Post Office. Receipts will be given for all sums paid when a certificate is not issued immediately and investors should be careful to obtain and preserve these. The provisional receipts must be surrendered in all cases in exchange for the certificates issued.

Finance.

(4) The total face value of Defence Savings certificates which may be held by one person, whether in the capacity of a sole holder or a joint holder or both, is limited to Rs. 5,000. A declaration in the prescribed form must be made, on the occasion of each purchase, by the purchaser or purchasers to the effect that:—

- (a) the total holding of the purchaser or purchasers will not after that purchase exceed this limit, and
- (b) the application, declaration and Post Office Defence Savings Certificate Rules shall be the basis of the contract between the purchaser or purchasers and the Government of India.

Explanation.—The face value of any Defence Savings certificates transferred to a Government officer in his official capacity to be treated as security or purchased out of money retained by such Government Officer as security or purchased out of the balance at the credit of the Teacher's Provident Fund account standing open in his name shall, for the purpose of calculating the limit under this rule, be deemed to be the holding of the person on whose account the same are held as security or have been purchased as aforesaid.

(5) Holdings in excess of the face value of Rs. 5,000 will not carry any interest and when such an excess is discovered the holder is liable to be called upon to discharge the excess holdings immediately. Any interest or payment received by any holder in contravention of these rules should be refunded on demand, and may, in addition to other remedies for the recovery thereof by the Government, be deducted from any money payable by the Government to the person obtaining such payment or his estate.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-rule, the head office and branches of a bank or other concern holding certificates shall be considered to be a single holder.

Exception.—The limit of Rs. 5,000 specified in sub-rule (4), and the provisions of sub-rule (5), shall not apply to—

- (a) Government Officers who in their official capacities hold certificates transferred to them as security,
- (b) such Government Officers and such officers of the Indian States the posts of which have been amalgamated with the Imperial Post, as may be authorised in this behalf by the Governor General in Council by notification in the Official Gazette, to hold cash certificates in a fiduciary capacity, and
- (c) the Reserve Bank of India and the Imperial Bank of India in respect of certificates transferred to it as security or held by it on behalf of claimants in respect of lost, wholly destroyed or defective Bank notes or currency notes of the Government of India.

NOTE.—The officers referred to in Exception (b) above, when purchasing certificates in a fiduciary capacity, are expected to satisfy themselves that the total value of the holdings in the name of any one person does not exceed Rs. 5,000.

The officer authorised by the Provincial Government or Administration to control the Teachers' Provident Fund may purchase Defence Savings Certificates on behalf of a teacher out of the latter's Provident Fund account standing open under rule 45-A of the Post Office Savings Bank Rules. The certificates will be made out in the name of the teacher on whose behalf they are purchased, and their custody and control as well as the power to transfer them and discharge them will remain with the officer authorised by the Provincial Government or Administration to control the Teachers' Provident Fund. Applications for purchase will be made on special form prescribed for the purpose. The following note will be made prominently in red ink on the face of the Defence Savings Certificate purchased after the name of the teacher-holder, thus:—

X. Y. (name of the teacher-holder) "payable to the officer authorised by the Provincial Government or Administration to control the Teachers' Provident Fund on his signature or to the teacher-holder on the counter-signature of the officer referred to".

When certificates are discharged on the signature of the controlling officer, the proceeds will be credited into the Provident Fund Account (in the Post Office Savings Bank) of the teacher concerned unless otherwise directed, in writing, by the controlling officer.

Finance.

The transfer of these certificates will also be allowed on the signature of the controlling officer, or on his counter-signature both on the certificates and on the applications for transfer.

When holdings in excess of the prescribed limit of Rs. 5,000 are detected in respect of a particular teacher the Officer authorised by the Provincial Government or Administration to control the Teachers' Provident Fund will be liable to be called upon to discharge the excess holdings which will not carry any interest.

NOTE.—The term "teacher" includes librarians, clerks and others in non-pensionable service who are eligible for admission to the Teachers' Provident Fund.

TRANSFER OF DEFENCE SAVINGS CERTIFICATES FROM THE NAME OF ONE PERSON TO THAT OF ANOTHER.

7. The holder of a Defence Savings certificate may transfer it to another person with the previous permission of the head postmaster of the office in which or in one of the sub-offices attached to which the certificate is for the time being registered. The transferee must furnish a declaration that his total holding of these certificates (including the amount to be transferred) does not exceed the permissible maximum of Rs. 5,000 and that he agrees that this declaration shall be the basis of the contract between him, as the transferee of the certificate, and the Government of India. A new certificate bearing the same date of maturity as the original certificate will be issued to the transferee on the surrender of the original certificate duly endorsed by the transferor on the reverse of the original certificate "Pay to" under his signature and the date. The application for transfer of certificate must be made in the prescribed form which may be obtained at any post office doing savings bank business.

NOTE 2.—The transfer of Defence Savings Certificates purchased in the name of a teacher out of the balance at credit of the Teachers' Provident Fund account requires the signature or countersignature of the officer authorised by the Provincial Government or Administration to control the Teachers' Provident Fund (as prescribed in rule 6).

NOTE 3.—Transfer of a Defence Savings Certificate standing in the name of a minor to that of another person requires the previous sanction of the Postmaster-General.

TRANSFER OF DEFENCE SAVINGS CERTIFICATES FROM ONE POST OFFICE TO ANOTHER.

8. If such a transfer is desired the holder should present or send to the post office in which the certificate is for the time being registered an application in the prescribed form accompanied by the Defence Savings certificate concerned. The entry of the transfer will be made by the Post Office on the back of the Defence Savings certificate.

Exception.—The restriction of transfer within three months does not apply when a Defence Savings Certificate is transferred to a Government Officer as security.

NOTE 1.—Applications for the transfer from one post office to another of Defence Savings certificates in joint names (of both classes) should be signed by both the joint holders.

NOTE 2.—In the case of transfer from one post office to another of Defence Savings Certificates purchased in the name of a teacher out of the balance at credit of his Teachers' Provident Fund account, the provisions of Note 2 below rule 7 will apply.

9. The purchasers of Defence Savings certificates may transfer their holdings of Defence Savings Certificates to any officer of Government in his official capacity to be treated as security or authorise or consent to the purchase of Defence Savings certificates out of money retained by Government Officers as security. The value of the security shall be the amount at which the Defence Savings Certificates were purchased or their conversion value on the date the Defence Savings certificates are transferred. In all such cases Defence Savings certificates must be formally transferred to the Government Officer concerned with the sanction of the Head Postmaster of the office in which, or any one of the sub-offices, attached to which, the certificates are for the time being registered. The certificates may, with the permission of the Head Postmaster, be re-transferred by the Government Officer to the original holder when the purpose for which they were transferred is fulfilled.

Transfers of Defence Savings certificates by holders as security to private individuals, banks or other concerns are prohibited.

Recognition also will not be accorded to the deposit of or other dealings in Defence Savings certificates for the purposes of security as between individuals, banks or private concerns and Government accept no responsibility for repayment of certificates so dealt with otherwise than to the registered holder thereof.

In order to avoid frequent transfers which would be involved in consequence of the change of incumbents, Government officers shall hold Defence Savings certificates as security in their official capacities only.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule the term "Government Officers" includes any officer of the Government of an Indian State, the Posts of which have been amalgamated with the Imperial Post and such officers of Indian States as are authorised to hold Government securities in their official capacities.

In the case of Defence Savings certificates standing in the name of a married female minor, all applications for discharge should be referred to the Postmaster-General for orders. Except in cases in which the applicant himself has stated that the current value of all Defence Savings certificates standing in the name of the minor exceeds Rs. 5,000, the applicant must furnish a declaration in the form given below. (Form of declaration.).

I hereby declare that to the best of my belief and knowledge there are no Defence Savings certificates standing in the name of the minor (name) other than those specified below. If any more Defence Savings certificates in the name of the minor be found afterwards and thereby the current value of the entire holding of the minor exceeds Rs. 5,000 on this date, I undertake, if required to do so, to produce within three months from the date of demand an order of a competent court of law appointing me or declaring me to be the guardian of the property of the minor, failing which, I shall hold myself liable to refund the value of the Defence Savings certificates to be paid to me on behalf of the minor, with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum.

N.B.—A natural legal guardian will not be required to obtain and produce an order of a competent court of law appointing or declaring him to be the guardian of the property of the minor.

NOTE 1.—Evidence showing that the person in whose name the Defence Savings certificate stands is alive and is still a minor must be produced by the claimant. A declaration by the claimant supported by the signatures of two respectable witnesses and authenticated by a magistrate, will ordinarily suffice.

NOTE 2.—All applications for discharge of Defence Savings Certificates standing in the name of a female minor must in addition to the declaration prescribed above, bear a certificate, signed by the person making the application that the minor is married/not married.

(b) For rule regarding payment of Defence Savings Certificates standing in the name of a minor and enfaced for payment at the India Office, see sub-rule (2) of rule 13.

(3) Defence Savings certificates purchased by a Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation for the benefit of a woman or a person under any legal disability may be discharged by him or his successor in office.

(4) In the case of payment of Defence Savings Certificates purchased in the name of a teacher out of the balance at credit of his Teachers' Provident Fund account the provisions of rule 6 will apply.

(5) Payment of the amount due on a Defence Savings certificate will ordinarily be made only at the post office at which the certificate is for the time being registered. The holder may, however, apply for payment at any post office doing savings bank business. In the latter case payment will be made at the post office at which application is made after the certificate has been verified by the office in which it is for the time being registered, provided that at least three complete months have elapsed from the date on which it was originally purchased or transferred to the office where it stands registered.

(6) Payment of a Defence Savings certificate issued in joint names and belonging to class A referred to in rule 2 can be made only on the signatures of the joint holders. Payment will, however, be made to one of the joint holders on a letter of consent from the other holder addressed to the postmaster.

(7) Payment of a Defence Savings certificate issued in joint names and belonging to class B can be made on the signature of either of the joint holders.

PARTIAL DISCHARGE AND EXCHANGE OF DEFENCE SAVINGS CERTIFICATES.

11. (1) A holder of Defence Savings certificates may discharge a part of his holding by making an application to the Postmaster of the office in which the certificates are at the time registered, mentioning the amount he desires to be repaid to him and the numbers and denominations of the certificates which will form the balance.

(2) Several Defence Savings certificates of lower denominations may be exchanged for one or more certificates of a higher value or a certificate of a higher value may be exchanged for a number of Defence Savings certificates of lower denominations on application to the postmaster of the office in which the certificates are at the time registered.

12. (1) If a holder of Defence Savings certificates should die leaving certificates the sum due on which at the time of death does not exceed five thousand rupees, and if probate of his will, or letters of administration of his estate, or a certificate granted under the Indian Succession Act (Act XXXIX of 1925), be not produced to the Postmaster-General within three months of the death of the said holder, the Postmaster-General may pay the sum for the time being due on the certificates to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased on his furnishing a declaration to the following effect:—

I/We hereby declare that my/our deceased (relationship) the late (name of holder) held at the time of death no Defence Savings certificates other than those detailed below. If any more Defence Savings certificates in the name of the deceased be found afterwards and thereby the sum due on the entire holding at the time of death of the holder exceeds Rs. 5,000 I/We undertake that I/We shall produce legal evidence of heirship, as required by the post office.

NOTE 1.—The postmaster of the office of registration of Defence Savings certificates unless it is an extra-departmental sub-office, may exercise those powers of the Postmaster-General on the same conditions in cases in which the sum due at the time of death of the holder of the certificates standing in the name of a single investor does not exceed one hundred rupees.

NOTE 2.—For rule regarding payment in the United Kingdom of Defence Savings certificates belonging to a deceased holder, see sub-rule (3) of rule 13.

NOTE 3.—In the event of death of a teacher or any other member of Teachers' Provident Fund occurring while the Defence Savings Certificates purchased in his name from the balance at credit of his Teachers' Provident Fund account are remaining undischarged, payment on such certificates will be obtained by the officer authorised by the local Government or Administration to control the Teachers' Provident Fund, and the amount will be treated as if it formed part of the balance at credit of the Teachers' Provident Fund account of the deceased in the Post Office Savings Bank.

(2) If the sum due on all the Defence Savings certificates at the time of death of the holder exceeds five thousand rupees, payment will be made only on production of a probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate or a certificate granted under the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (XXXIX of 1925).

(3) Certificates purchased in joint names are ordinarily payable to the surviving joint holder when one of the joint holders is dead; and the head postmaster of the office in which or in one of the sub-offices attached to which the certificates are for the time being registered is competent to issue orders of payment in such cases. When both the joint holders are dead such certificates are payable under the orders of the Postmaster-General, to the representative of the last surviving joint holder.

PAYMENT OF DEFENCE SAVINGS CERTIFICATES IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

13. (1) Holders of Defence Savings certificates, who subsequently leave India, may obtain during their stay abroad payment for their certificates in the United Kingdom at the rate of exchange current at the time of encashment. Holders who wish to avail themselves of the concession must apply in the prescribed form to the post office in which the certificates are for the time being registered for their encashment by the head postmaster for payment at the India Office, London. In case, however, the encashment for the payment of Defence Savings certificates is required after the holders have left India, the applications should be made through the India Office, London.

(2) Defence Savings Certificates standing in the name of a minor and encashed for payment at the India Office shall be payable to the natural or legal guardian or to any other person under the orders of the Secretary of State for India, provided that when the current value of all Defence Savings Certificates standing in the name of the minor exceeds Rs. 5,000 on the date the application is made, payment to a person other than the legal guardian will be made only on the execution of an indemnity bond. Appointment of an Inspector of Enemy Trading at Madras.

No. 12 (12)-E. T. (A)/41, dated the 26th July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 100 of the Defence of India Rules, the Central Government has been pleased to appoint Mr. S. E. Van Haeften to be an Inspector of Enemy Trading under the said rule at Madras, with effect from the 27th June 1941, vice Mr. F. J. Scott.

Serial No. 107.

Press Communiqué, dated the 31st July, 1941.

Trade Agents abroad: Replacement of enemy subjects advised.

Press Communiqué, dated the 31st July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

Already more than 3,000 persons and firms resident in neutral countries have been declared as 'enemies' under the Defence of India Rules and a list of such persons and firms is published in the Gazette of India and reproduced, in the Indian Trade Journal. Any commercial, financial or other intercourse or dealings with concerns and individuals on the List, without official permission, constitutes an offence of trading with the enemy and is punishable as such. Under these conditions the traders should not rely on the various trade directories for names of new connections and they should satisfy themselves from the Gazette of India, the Indian Trade Journal or ordinary commercial channels that any firms which they may approach have no enemy interests or associations.

2. The List is an essential part of the machinery for preventing Germany and Italy from obtaining economic and financial advantage from British and neutral countries, and accordingly consists in the main of (a) concerns which are controlled directly or indirectly from enemy territory (this term including enemy-occupied territory and certain other territories notified by the Government of India from time to time), and of (b) concerns or individuals who have persistently evaded, or attempted to evade, our contraband or enemy export control.

3. Persons controlled from enemy territory are enemies within the meaning of the Defence of India Rules, whether or not they appear in the List of enemies.

4. Enemy subjects who are not in enemy territory are not necessarily enemies for the purposes of the "trading with the enemy" provisions of the Defence of India Rules, and it is not intended to declare them as enemies merely because they are enemy subjects. Many Italian and German subjects carry on business in neutral countries without assisting Italy and Germany, and in some cases are of assistance in the promotion of Empire trade; nevertheless owing to the exigencies of war, enemy subjects wherever they may be carrying on business should be regarded with suspicion, and British and Indian traders who employ enemy subjects as agents in neutral countries will be well advised to consider displacing them either by Empire agents or by nationals of the country concerned.

5. Traders who find difficulty in obtaining satisfactory alternative agents should consult the Controller of Enemy Trading in India in Bombay, or the Commercial Counsellors or Secretaries to His Majesty's Missions abroad.

Trade with Italian East Africa: Permission given.

No. 102 (18)-E. T. (B)/41, dated the 1st August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of the proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 98 of the Defence of India Rules, the Central Government is pleased to permit all commercial and financial dealings with any person or body of persons (whether corporate or unincorporate) carrying on business in the territories formerly known as Italian East Africa.

Press Communiqué, dated the 1st August, 1941.

Trade with Italian East Africa: Permission given subject to certain regulations.

Press Communiqué, dated the 1st August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The Government of India have permitted commercial and financial dealings with persons or bodies of persons (whether corporate or unincorporate) carrying on business in the territories formerly known as Italian East Africa.

This permission does not however absolve persons from complying with any regulations which may be in force in these territories. Firms desiring information on such regulations will have to address their enquiries through their agents to the Deputy Chief Political Officer of the particular territory concerned.

Trading in neutral vessels: warning to shippers.

Press Communiqué, dated the 2nd August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

As Government are discriminating against certain categories of neutral vessels, some of which belong to owners who have been declared to be enemies under the Defence of India Rules, shippers, banks and other financial and commercial concerns are warned not to make use of any such vessels.

Shipments by vessels on the "Ships Discrimination List" may lead to difficulties, while shipments by vessels whose owners are on the "Statutory List" may even render the shippers or those connected with the consignments liable to prosecution, as being an offence under the Defence of India Rules, and the shipments themselves may be liable to seizure.

A list of such vessels is being published in the Indian Trade Journal in which changes in the list will be notified from time to time. Copies of the List will also be available from the Principal Officers of the Mercantile Marine Department at the major ports.

Newsprint Control Scheme.

Press Note, dated the 2nd June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commeree Department:—

When newsprint was brought on to the list of goods subject to import control with effect from shipments made on or after the 12th of April 1941, it was arranged that licences for imports from North American countries should be given to established importers on the basis of their imports from those countries during the 6 months August 1940 to January 1941. This period was selected as covering the conditions that arose after newsprint from Scandinavia and Baltic countries had ceased to be obtainable owing to war developments.

It was never intended that this arrangement should be more than an interim one pending the developments of a plan for correlating imports with the actual minimum requirements of the numerous newspapers, in English and in Indian languages, throughout the country, of which some imported their own paper and others bought from importers or dealers. Such a plan could not be produced at short notice, but it was necessary to apply some measure of control at once in order to prevent forestalling.

The operation of the interim arrangement has recently been subjected to a good deal of criticism, partly on the ground that it produced arbitrary discrimination between one newspaper and another, owing to accidental variations in the rate of their imports during the basic period, and partly because it put the smaller papers at the mercy of dealers who were in some cases, inclined to take advantage of the quasi-monopolistic position in which they were placed.

These results are, up to a point, unavoidable under any interim arrangement based upon past shipments, though certain special difficulties are receiving the consideration of Government. For example, it has already been decided to take the U. S. A., Canada and Newfoundland together, and not separately, in the calculation of quotas. Such adjustments, however, cannot go to the root of the trouble, to remedy which it was, and remains, the intention of Government to substitute a plan in which the criterion should be actual requirements and not past importation.

The next step in the desired direction has now been taken by the issue of the Newsprint Control Order, which provides firstly that newsprint shall be sold only to newspaper presses, secondly that it shall be used by these presses for no other purpose than the production of newspapers except with the special permission of the Government; and thirdly that returns of consumption shall be made by all newspapers, and returns of stocks by dealers. After these returns have been checked and quotas fixed for each newspaper, import licences will be given only in accordance with those quotas.

It is not the intention of the Government to put out of business the traders who ordinarily supply newsprint to the newspapers, but when the final stage is reached these traders will be given their licences to cover no more than the quantities earmarked for particular newspapers, and it will be a condition of the grant of licences to them that they shall not.

The control of Tea, Rubber, Vehicles, Tools, Chemicals, etc.

on pain of refusal of all further licences, sell newsprint so imported or allow it to be sold at a price covering more than the import price plus a prescribed margin for profit and incidental expenses. The prices at which newsprint is sold by importers during the interim period, will also be taken into consideration in granting such licences.

For the above purposes newsprint has been defined as white printing paper of the description given in No. 44 (2) of the Customs Tariff. Such paper, if not white, will have to be covered, for purposes of import control, by the quotas fixed for the importation of other kinds of paper. These quotas have been severely restricted because the presence of a highly developed Indian paper industry makes it possible to cut down imports of paper for general purposes. It would not be practicable to attempt to apply such severe restriction to newsprint since for mechanical reasons in some cases and because of price considerations in all cases the result might well be to make it impossible for newspapers to carry on their business—a result which in the opinion of the Government of India would be contrary to the public interest.

Representations have recently been received regarding the difficulties found by suppliers in obtaining shipping space. The information of the Government of India is that for ships from Canada, which is now the main source of supply, newsprint is given high priority after essential war supplies. If this is the case, the difficulty becomes merely a part of the general problem of shortage of ships, but the Government of India are taking measures to ascertain whether their information is correct and, if it is not, to have representations made in the proper quarters.

Newsprint Control Order: Consumption returns.

Press Note, dated the 16th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department.

Under the Newsprint Control Order 1941 newspaper presses are required to submit to Government by June 30, 1941, a return of their consumption of newsprint in 1940 in form III attached to the Order. Newspapers may at their option send also statistics of their consumption of newsprint in 1939.

The presses that fail to furnish the information by the time prescribed may find it very difficult to obtain imports of newsprint at a later stage.

Newsprint Control Order, 1941: Grant of import facilities dependent on the submission of returns in time.

Press Note, dated the 26th July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

Under the Newsprint Control Order, 1941, newspaper presses were required to submit by the 30th June 1941 statements of the consumption of newsprint, by each newspaper printed thereat, in the Calendar year 1940.

The Government of India received a fair number of returns in due time. They are working out plans on the basis that in respect of newspapers for which the returns were not received by the prescribed date, facilities for the import of newsprint will be allowed only on the minimum scale permitted to any newspaper for which the returns were duly received.

The Government have however indicated that if defaulters send in the necessary returns by 15th August 1941, these may be taken into consideration; but the submission of such a belated return will not of necessity involve the grant of increased import facilities, nor absolve the presses concerned from the legal consequences of disobedience to the Newsprint Control Order.

Newsprint Control: Quota allotment on past consumption.

Press Note, dated the 5th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The Government of India have now received sufficient returns under the Newsprint Control Order 1941 for them to introduce, on a temporary basis in the first instance, a system by which import quotas for news-print will be allotted to newspapers on the basis of past consumption instead of to importers on the basis of past imports. Import licences will be granted up to the limit of such quotas.

This system will cover shipments made during the four months from September to December 1941. Import licences which have already been issued by Import Trade Controllers to importers, on the basis of past imports, for shipments to be made during September and October 1941 will therefore be cancelled.

Quotas under the new system will be allotted by the Chief Controller of Imports, Commerce Department, New Delhi, who will issue to each newspaper a certificate showing the quota allotted to it for shipment during the four months in question. It will be necessary to attach these certificates to applications for import licences which will continue to be presented to Import Trade Controllers at the ports. The Import Trade Controller will return the certificate to the applicant after endorsing on it the amount which has been included in the import licence granted by him.

In order to safeguard the interests of dealers, it has been decided that import licences will be issued in the name of a newspaper quota-holder only to the extent to which it has imported direct during the calendar year 1940. For imports through dealers it will be open to a quota-holder to nominate any dealer whose name figures on a list drawn up by Government on the basis of the information received by them under paragraph 5 of the News-print Control Order, 1941, and the import licence will then issue in the name of this nominee.

Press Note, dated the 15th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The Newsprint Control Order which was issued on the 31st May 1941 prohibited the sale of "newsprint" except to newspaper presses. This caused hardship to paper merchants because some of their stocks of newsprint were unsuitable, on account of their size and quality, for use by newspapers. In view of this fact and of the consideration that quotas for the import of newsprint will in future be assigned to newspapers and not to dealers, the Government of India have accordingly decided to lift the embargo on sales entirely and an Open General Permit has been issued giving effect to this decision.

Steel Import from U. S. A.: Memorandum (Lease/Lend).

No. 437, dated the 16th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Supply Department:—

The following Memorandum is published for general information.

MEMORANDUM.

Steel Import from U. S. A.

(Lease/Lend).

GENERAL.

1. Before July 15th the importation of steel from the U. S. A. was governed by the provisions of Memorandum No. G. 3 (25), dated 26th February 1941.

All Importation Certificates issued before that date are valid, and the consignments to which such importation certificates relate will be dealt with under the procedure prescribed by that memorandum.

2. All applications for steel from the U. S. A. must now be made under the Lease and Lend procedure established under the American Lease and Lend Act. The effect of this Act is to make it possible for His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom to obtain from the American Administration without dollar payments supplies essential for the prosecution of the war, and where necessary, to pass such supplies on to the Dominions or India. It has been decided that as steel must now be reserved for strictly essential needs all steel from America must be sought under Lease/Lend. It is a condition of receiving commodities under Lease/Lend that their use and distribution must be under strict control. These conditions will be specified in greater detail later on when the requirements of the American Administration are more fully known.

This involves certain modifications in Memorandum No. G. 3 (25) and that Memorandum, therefore, is cancelled in so far as it refers to imports from the U. S. A.

3. The new procedure is summarised as follows:—

(i) Every application must be made on the prescribed form W. S. B.-112 or W. S. B.-113 and by the prescribed date (see form W. S. B.-114).

(ii) Indent forms will be obtainable from the following authorities:—

(1) Steel Import Controller for India, Department of Supply, Wallesley House, 7, Wallesley Place, Calcutta.

Indentors are required to note the distinction between the Steel Import Controller and the Iron and Steel Controller. The former deals with all imports of steel and is the authority competent to act under these instructions.

(2) Controller of Supplies, South India Circle, United India Life Building, Esplanade, Madras.

*The control of Tea, Rubber,
Vehicles, Tools, Chemicals, etc.*

- (3) Controller of Supplies, Bombay, Shahibagh House, Wittet Road, Ballard Estate, Bombay.

 - (5) Controller of Supplies, United Provinces, 15/159, Civil Lines, Cawnpore.
 - (6) Controller of Supplies, Sind, Variawa Building, McLeod Road, Karachi.
- (iii) The form and the procedure will vary according as the indent is submitted by a Government Department or an authority from which orders are at present accepted by the Purchasing Organisations of the Supply Department without first obtaining a deposit (see Part I) or by private indentors from whom a deposit in advance is essential (see Part II).
 - (iv) No indent will be entertained by the Steel Import Controller unless the estimated C. I. F. value of the steel demanded by it exceeds Rs. 5,000; provided that the Steel Import Controller may relax this rule if he is satisfied that good reason exists for doing so.
 - (v) The indentor is bound by the conditions regarding the use or disposal of steel received under L/L from the U. S. A. which may be imposed from time to time by the Government of India.

 - (xiv) Subsequent correspondence.—No enquiries or correspondence in respect of any indent may be addressed to the authorities in the U. S. A. direct. These must invariably be addressed to the Steel Import Controller for India, Department of Supply, Wellesley House, 7 Wallésley Place, Calcutta.

*The control of Tea, Rubber,
Vehicles, Tools, Chemicals, etc.*

(xv) Ferro alloys.—The above provisions regarding indent do not apply to the ferro alloys brought under import control by Notification No. 44-I. T. C./41, of 24th June, 1941. These are dealt with in Part III.

PART I.

Procedure for Government Importers.

4. The words "Government Importers" should be taken as applying to all those Government Departments or authorities from which orders are at present accepted by the purchasing organisations of the Supply Department without first obtaining a deposit.

5. All indents from Government Importers should be submitted to the Steel Import Controller at 7, Wellesley Place, Calcutta, in Form W. S. B. 112. No other form will be accepted. The provisions of items (viii) and (ix) in particular in the Summary (para. 3 above) must be strictly observed.

6. Acceptance of the Indent.—If the Steel Import Controller is satisfied, with reference to the instructions received by him from time to time, that the import of the material from America, either in part or in full, is justified, an acceptance note will be sent to the indenter stating that the material (or part of it) will be included in the next quarterly indent.

7. Placing of the order in America.—The S. I. C. will then prepare the indent to be placed in America through the American Purchase Section of the Supply Department. Five copies of this indent will be sent to the American Purchase Section. Of these, three copies will be sent to America, two by air mail and one by sea mail, and two retained by the Section.

8. Preparation of the Estimate of Cost.—After the order has been sent to America, the indentors will be informed and an estimate of cost prepared by the Steel Import Controller and sent to each of them in respect of the material ordered for him. This estimate will include the cost of the material, freight, insurance (war and marine) and customs duty in the case of imports for other than the defence services, plus 1 per cent. for the Steel Import Controller's services plus clearing agent's charges. A copy of this estimate will be sent to the American Purchase Section for information and necessary action.

9. Shipping documents and adjustment of accounts.—All shipping documents will be prepared (in duplicate) in the name of the Steel Import Controller. The original will be despatched to the recognised clearing agent at the port of arrival and the duplicate to the Steel Import Controller. The Steel Import Controller will immediately issue to the clearing agent despatch instructions for each consignment, sending a copy to the D. C. S. A. and intimating the gross amount recoverable from each indenter. The clearing agent will, having cleared the consignment as agent of Government, and after carrying out such unpacking, sorting and repacking as may be necessary, despatch the goods rail freight to pay in accordance with S. I. C.'s instructions, at the same time intimating to the S. I. C. and the D. C. S. A. that he has done so; the latter will thereupon raise debits against the indenting departments or recover the amount due in the usual manner. The exact form in which instructions will be issued by the S. I. C. and information communicated to the D. C. S. A. as also the methods of raising debits against indenting departments will be laid down in a Manual of Procedure and Accounts for Lease/Lend transactions to be issued later.

*The control of Tea, Rubber,

10 In addition to the quarterly indents mentioned above, the American Purchase Officer may at his discretion for good reasons, place supplementary urgent indents on America. Such exceptions will be made, however, only in the case of demands by Government or specifically for Government purposes. And in all such cases, the indenter will have to satisfy the S. I. C. and the American Purchase Section, that the deferring of such supplementary indents to the next quarterly stage would adversely affect efficiency and the level of the war effort. Such extraordinary indents should be submitted in accordance with the procedure set out above for the main indents.

PART II.

Procedure for Non-Government Importers.

11. Non-Government importers desiring to import steel from the U. S. A. can do so only after submission of an application to the S. I. C. for India. This application should be in Form W. S. B.-113. No other form will be accepted. The provisions of items (viii) and (ix) in particular in the Summary (para. 3 above) must be strictly observed.

12. If the S. I. C. is satisfied with reference to the instructions issued to him from time to time at the instance of the Commerce or other Departments that the import of the whole or part of the steel is justified he will return to the applicant a copy of his application duly endorsed on the reverse authorising him to place his indent on an Importing Agent. He will also send a copy of this authorisation to the Importing Agent selected by the applicant.

13. An Importing Agent is a commercial house which—

- (a) is regularly engaged in the import of steel or particular classes of steel from the U. S. A. and possesses the resources for financing and the staff and organisation to deal adequately and promptly with the bulking of orders and the distribution of steel on delivery in India;
- (b) agrees to abide by conditions and instructions laid down from time to time by the Government in regard to consignments received under the L/L procedure from the U. S. A.;
- (c) is prepared to furnish a general security including a financial guarantee to the satisfaction of Government for the due performance of these functions; and
- (d) is registered as an Importing Agent by the Government.

Importing Agents will act on behalf of indentors who deal through them and will receive no special remuneration from Government. The rates they charge indentors for services rendered will be subject to Government's control and approval.

*The control of Tea, Rubber,
Vehicles, Tools, Chemicals, etc.*

14. Along with the authorisation the indenter will be supplied with an estimate of cost for the material allowed to be purchased and on the basis of this estimate he must furnish such security to the Importing Agent selected by him as the latter may require. Unless this is done the Importing Agent will be entitled to disregard his indent. The indenter will then submit his indent to the Importing Agent selected by him. The estimate will include the cost of the materials, freight, insurance (war and marine), customs duty and 1 per cent. Steel Import Controller's charges, plus clearing agent's charges.

15. All indents from private indentors must pass through an Importing Agent, unless specific instructions to the contrary are given.

16. In placing his indent an indenter should quote the number and date of the S. I. C.'s authorisation.

17. The Importing Agent will check the indent with the authorisation issued by the S. I. C. and subject to such check or other discussion necessary, send an acceptance to the indenter.

18. The Agent will group all indents received by him according to classes, sizes, specifications, etc. and prepare one consolidated quarterly indent for each of the various classes of steel. He will submit this grouped indent in the form (W. S. B.-115) to the S. I. C. to reach him not later than the last date fixed for that class of steel during a particular quarter (see form W. S. B.-114).

19. This indent will be accompanied by the following documents:—

(i) The duplicate copy of the indent and authorisation issued by the Steel Import Controller to the importing agent.

(ii) A certificate from the importing agent that he has obtained suitable financial cover from the indenter and that he accepts full liability for payments involved. The importing agent will, at the same time, furnish a written guarantee from a bank approved by the Steel Import Controller for an amount equal to the total estimated cost (as specified in para. 14 above) of the materials covered by his indent, together with a margin of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of this total for contingencies.

20. Placing of orders in America.—The Steel Import Controller will then prepare the indent to be placed in America through the American Purchase Section of the Supply Department. Five copies of this indent will be sent to the American Purchase Section. Of these, three copies will be sent to America, two by air mail and one by sea mail and two retained by the Section.

21. All shipping documents will be prepared (in duplicate) in the name of the Steel Import Controller. The original will be despatched to the recognised clearing agent at the port of arrival and the duplicate to the Steel Import Controller. The S. I. C. will immediately issue to the clearing agent instructions as to the allocation of each consignment, sending a copy to the D. C. S. A. and indicating the gross amount to be recovered from each importing agent or private indenter as the case may be (see para. 15). The clearing agent will, having cleared the consignment as agent of Government, carry out such unpacking, sorting and repacking as may be necessary. On receipt of the statement of amounts to be recovered, the D. C. S. A. will immediately call for payment thereof. When the money has been deposited he will inform the clearing agent who will thereupon (and not before) despatch the goods rail freight to pay under instructions given by the importing agents and intimate to the D. C. S. A. and the S. I. C. that he has done so. The exact form in which instructions will be issued by the S. I. C., deposits demanded from importing agents and private importers, and intimation communicated to the D. C. S. A. and clearing agents will be laid down in a Manual of Procedure and Accounts for Lease/Lend transactions to be issued later.

*The control of Tea, Rubber,

22. Receipt of non-Government indents direct by the S. I. C.—Notwithstanding the procedure laid down above for the receipt of indents from non-Government importers, all indents for the following classes of steel must be sent direct to the S. I. C. and not through Agents:

- (i) Hoops (for baling jute or cotton)
- (ii) Railway springs (whether laminated or coiled)
- (iii) Tinplates, terne plates
- (iv) Wheels, tyres, axles, buffers, locomotive piston rods, motion parts
- (v) Rolling rolls for steel works (whether of cast iron, cast steel or forged).

23. The S. I. C. may, in his discretion, allow any of the Indian States or Company-managed Railways which are required to make an advance deposit, to place their indent direct on him.

If so, the form W. S. B.-113 intended as an application for an authorisation, will be used for placing the indent on the S. I. C. direct.

24. An authorisation and an estimate of cost will be supplied as provided in para. 14 to indentors permitted under the exception to para. 15 or under paras. 22 and 23 above to place their indents direct on the Steel Import Controller. On receipt of this authorisation the indentor must either (i) furnish a written guarantee from a bank approved by the Steel Import Controller for an amount equal to the total estimated cost (as defined in para. 14 above) of the materials covered by his indent, together with a margin of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of this total for contingencies, or (ii) deposit in the Reserve Bank or in a Government Treasury an equal amount for the credit of Government.

PART III.

25. Ferro Alloys.—No direct indents will be placed on America by the American Purchase Section and the present procedure laid down for those desiring to import these alloys will continue.

Press Note, dated the 19th August, 1941.

Iron and Steel Control: No licence for finished manufactures.

Press Note, dated the 19th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Supply Department:—

No licences are necessary under the Iron and Steel (Control of Distribution) Order, 1941 for acquiring articles which contain or are made of any of the controlled types of iron and steel and it is not necessary to apply for licences to acquire such articles as gramophones, safes, bottle openers, buckets, padlocks, bolts for fitting on doors, etc. Nor is it necessary to apply for licences to carry on business as a dealer in such articles.

The Iron and Steel (Control of Distribution) Order, 1941 does not apply to the acquisition or disposal of finished manufactured articles made of iron or steel, but only to the acquisition and disposal of those types of iron and steel which appear in the Second Schedule to the Order.

Imports from outside India of the controlled types of iron and steel are not affected by the Order and such imports continue to be regulated by licences issued by the Steel Import Controller or Deputy Steel Import Controllers at Calcutta in the case of imports from the United Kingdom, United States of America and Burma and by the Import Trade Controllers for imports from other countries. Imports into British India from Indian States do not require to be licensed by any British Indian authority.

All imported steel of the types mentioned in the Second Schedule to the Order, as soon as it comes into the importer's hands in India, does, however, become subject to the provisions of the Iron and Steel (Control of Distribution) Order and cannot be acquired or disposed of unless covered by a licence or written order issued under the provisions of the Order, except in transactions for quantities not exceeding for any one customer in any month such amounts as have been fixed by the Commerce Department as being exempt from the provisions of clauses 4 and 5 of the Order.

Press Note, dated the 28th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The Coffee Market Expansion Ordinance, 1940, is due to expire on August 31, 1941. Representations have been received from interests concerned that pending legislation Government might extend the ordinance in order to cover any interregnum in the control of the coffee industry.

The Government of India have accordingly issued today an amending Ordinance.* The Government of India are at the same time actively pursuing their examination of the question of continuance of the coffee control scheme in consultation with the various interests concerned. If there is a consensus of opinion in favour of continuance, they intend to take up the question of replacing the Ordinance by suitable Legislation, during the coming session of the Legislature.

Regulating petrol and kerosene prices.

Press note, dated the 1st July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The Oil Companies have made an arrangement with the Government of India to regulate the prices of petrol and kerosene during the period of the war on the basis of an average between the world prices for the foreign oil and cost of production for oil refined in India and Burma constituting the supplies for the Indian market over a given period. It is a part of this arrangement that the prices allowed should be reviewed every six months.

The representatives of the Oil Companies accordingly met the representative of the Department of Commerce recently to discuss the prices to be charged for the Second half-year 1941. They have placed materials before the Government of India to show that there has been an increase in the cost of kerosene oil (both superior and inferior) delivered in India which justifies an alteration of the price allowed. This increase is mainly due to the fact that a large proportion of foreign oil has now to be imported for ports in the West Coast, in order to make the best use of the available tanker tonnage. The cost of motor spirit has also increased.

The Government of India have accordingly approved of the recovery of the following wholesale prices during the period July 1st to December 31st, 1941:—

Inferior Kerosene Rs. 5-1-0 and Superior Kerosene Rs. 5-15-6, per unit of eight Imperial gallons ex. Main Port Installation, representing an increase of $1\frac{1}{2}$ pies and six pies per gallon, respectively, over the prices fixed in April 1941 after making due allowance for the duty levied on Burma Kerosene under the Indo-Burma Trade Agreement. Petrol Rs. 1-8-6 per gallon ex. Main Port Pump shows an increase of six pies over its prevailing price during the period January 18th to June 30th, 1941.

Press Note, dated the 15th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

There has recently been visible a tendency for prices of various commodities, including textiles, to rise sharply, partly due to speculative influences and partly to more substantial reasons. The Government of India are giving the closest attention to this subject and propose to convene another Price Control Conference as early as possible. In the meantime, the best service that the public can render to themselves is to refrain from making purchases in excess of their normal requirements, such purchases only serve to encourage those speculative influences which contribute to a rise in prices.

Gifts of food to the United Kingdom.

Press Note, dated the 11th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

The procedure regarding gifts of food sent to the United Kingdom from abroad has recently been reviewed by the Ministry of Food, and in order to conserve shipping space for the more urgent supplies, they have notified the following new regulations which will be applied in respect of all gifts despatched from abroad after June 28, 1941:

Bona fide unsolicited gifts whether they include rationed foods or not may be sent from abroad by parcel post addressed to individuals. No parcel may exceed 5 lbs. gross weight or contain more than 2 lbs. of any one foodstuff. The maximum of 5 lbs. will also be applied by the Board of Trade in the case of non-foodstuffs. No U. K. permit or licence is required in such cases and all parcels must be clearly marked as gifts.

A gift cannot be regarded as 'unsolicited' where it is despatched as a result of some prior communication sent by the recipient to the donor. Moreover, the receipt of gifts at frequent intervals is not permitted.

Licences which have been granted to importers in the United Kingdom to receive individual gifts in bulk for distribution through the parcel post on arrival in the United Kingdom will not be renewed or any further licences of this type approved. Existing licences and those recently expired and under consideration for renewal will be held to cover consignments despatched from abroad by June 28.

Where well-wishers abroad desire to send larger quantities of foodstuffs (which must not include rationed foods) they must first arrange for some responsible organisation in the United Kingdom formed for charitable or similar purposes to be the recipient of such gifts. Application for a licence must then be made to the Ministry of Food by the organisation which will be required to give an undertaking that the goods will be consumed within that organisation. For example, if the recipient is a hospital the food would be supplied to patients or members of the staff.

In the case of neither parcels or larger consignments will it be permitted to send any money out of the United Kingdom in respect of gifts of food.

Apart from the foregoing restrictions imposed by H.M.G., the Indian public are reminded that export by post of tea in excess of one pound will require an export licence issued by the Indian Tea Licensing Committee, Calcutta, under Section 11 (c) of the Indian Tea Control Act, 1938.

Technical training instructors from the United Kingdom.

Press Note, dated the 25th June, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Department of Labour:—

The Government of India have arranged with His Majesty's Government for the services of 100 technical training instructors from the United Kingdom to be placed at the disposal of the Department of Labour for work in connection with the Technical Training Scheme. The object is to introduce a leaven of experienced instructors from English training centres among instructors in India and so bring training here more closely into line with up-to-date practice in the United Kingdom.

The instructors will come in batches, the first of which is due to arrive shortly. They will be posted to a clearing centre in Delhi for two or three weeks, during which they will have lectures on food and health, lessons in Hindustani and talks from a variety of authorities on industrial and technical training conditions in India. The cost of these arrangements and the salaries of the instructors will be borne by the Central Government.

*Miscellaneous : Production, Supplies,
Labour, Insurance, Transport,
Patents, Designs, etc., etc.*

The Technical Training Scheme owes its origin to the Technical Training Enquiry Committee which submitted its report to the Department of Labour at the end of July, 1940. The report recommended the utilisation of 16 technical institutions and the intensive training of some 3,000 semi-skilled tradesmen and was accepted by the Government of India early in August. Owing to the increasing needs of the technical branches of the Defence Services and Ordnance and munitions factories, the scheme has since been expanded to provide for the training of 15,000 men by the end of March 1942.

Of the 15,000 men required, 7,000 are general engineering fitters, 2,500 turners (metal), 1,500 machinists (metal), 1,250 electricians, 550 blacksmiths, 450 tin and copper smiths, 400 welders (electric and oxy-acetylene), 300 draughtsmen, 200 moulders and 200 carpenters.

Nearly 6,000 men are already under training at 87 centres and 104 more centres are ready to receive over 6,000 trainees. Thirty-two trainees have already passed out from the classes.

Candidates for technical training are ordinarily selected by the National Service Labour Tribunals constituted for each Province. If, however, the supply from this source is inadequate, local arrangements may be made for the selection of candidates. On joining training centres, candidates are required to hand over to the Principals or Managers a signed undertaking to undergo training and, on the completion of their training, to accept such employment as may be found for them, failing which they undertake to refund the stipends drawn by them. These undertakings are retained by heads of training centres until instructions as to their disposal are received from the Central Government. No guarantee is given or implied that the trainees will be provided with employment, on the completion of their training. All casualties at training centres are reported by the Principals or Managers to the Chairman of the local Tribunal whose function it is to supply fresh candidates to fill the vacancies or authorise the vacancies to be filled by local recruitment.

On reporting at a training centre, each trainee is paid by the Principal or Manager travelling expenses from his home to the centre at the rate of one single third class fare plus one anna per mile for road journeys, provided the distance exceeds five miles.

Those who are selected for employment are paid travelling expenses to the place of their employment at the rate of one single third class fare plus one anna per mile for journeys performed by road plus a subsistence allowance of 12 annas a day, or part of the day, for the period of the journey. These charges are paid by heads of training centres and recouped by bills on the Central Government.

Trainees are medically examined under arrangements made by the National Service Labour Tribunals either before or soon after the commencement of their training and under arrangements made by the Technical Recruiting Officer at the end of their training. Candidates who are found medically unfit after joining a training centre are discharged and given their travelling expenses to their homes.

Trainees are allowed free medical treatment at the cost of the Central Government up to a maximum of Rs. 10 at any one time. Expenditure in excess of this amount may be incurred when necessary but it requires the subsequent sanction of the Central Government.

*Miscellaneous : Production, Supplies,
Labour, Insurance, Transport,
Patents, Designs, etc., etc.*

Trainees receive stipends from the Central Government at the rate of Rs. 25 per month if they are matriculates, or Rs. 20 per month if they are not, and are expected to pay for their board and lodging out of these amounts. Trainees are subject to the ordinary rules in force at the centres at which they are being trained, and are treated in the matter of fines and deductions as employees under the Workmen's Compensation Act in the case of all trainees; and both their interests and those of the training authorities are, therefore, fully protected in the event of accidents arising out of training.

The maximum duration of the courses is one year but a large number of semi-skilled men will, it is expected, be turned out in a considerably shorter period. Owing to the urgent need for trained men, it may be necessary to reduce the maximum duration of the courses to nine months. Trainees are passed out as soon as they have passed the standard trade tests.

To avoid delay in opening training centres and keep down overhead costs and expenditure on tools, plant and instructors, the scheme is based on the principle that the fullest possible use should be made of existing institutions and workshops and that only the out-of-pocket expenses of the training centres should be met by the Central Government. This principle has been generally accepted and many firms have generously agreed to charge no fee for training.

As a general rule, the Central Government pays Rs. 7 per head per month for training, in those cases in which the Government provides or pays the cost of any additional equipment or instructors required. Where additional instructors or equipment are not provided or paid for by the Central Government, a higher rate is paid. Owing to the growing demand for equipment and instructors, institutions and workshops which accept trainees without additional equipment and instructors are rendering a double service to the country. These institutions apply to the Regional Inspector appointed for their area or to the local National Service Tribunal.

Syllabuses of training, intended for use only as a guide, and standard trade tests have been prepared in pamphlet form by the Department of Labour.

There are nine Regional Inspectors of Technical Training at present and two more are to be appointed shortly. It is the duty of these inspectors to visit all training centres periodically and to ensure that the training given is efficient and intensive. The inspectors may be freely consulted on all matters affecting training and are giving heads of training centres every assistance in working the scheme.

Progress reports on the training at each centre are supplied by Principals or Managers to the Labour Department of the Central Government through the Regional Inspector concerned, on the first of each month.

In addition to the Regional Inspectors, Technical Recruiting Officers and representatives of the Indian Army Ordnance Corps and Ordnance Factories have been appointed to visit training centres.

An important function of the Regional Inspectors is to test the skill of the trainees periodically and supervise the trade tests to which they are submitted before being passed as fit for employment. All trainees who pass the standard trade tests are supplied with a certificate to that effect. Lists of trainees who pass the trade tests are sent to the Chairman of the local National Service Labour Tribunal, and the Regional Inspector and Technical Recruiting Officer concerned. The Chairman of the Tribunal then decides, in consultation with the Technical Recruiting Officer, who is also a member of the Tribunal, how the trainees should be utilised.

*Miscellaneous: Production, Supplies,

Patents, Designs, etc., etc.*

Owing to the growing need for instructors in the engineering trades, arrangements have been made by the Labour Department for the opening of classes for the training of 450 fitter, turner and machinist instructors (who have workshop experience) at selected training centres. They will be paid stipends of Rs. 50 per month in the case of supervisors and Rs. 35 per month in the case of mistries. Classes have already been arranged at three centres and the first batch of 64 instructors will be placed under training early in July.

Transshipment of Goods in the United Kingdom to be regulated.

Press Note, dated the 1st July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Commerce Department:—

Hitherto goods have been transhipped in the United Kingdom subject only to economic warfare considerations. This has resulted in shipping space required for United Kingdom imports being used for goods destined for other countries.

His Majesty's Government have therefore decided to use the machinery of import licensing to control transshipments in United Kingdom more closely, and it is likely that such transshipments will rarely be allowed. But so far as is consistent with the object of reducing the volume of transshipments, every endeavour will be made to avoid unnecessary interference with Indian exports, especially if it appears impossible for goods to be sent by alternative routes avoiding the United Kingdom.

Shippers would accordingly be well advised to satisfy themselves before goods are shipped to the United Kingdom that an import licence has been granted and that if goods are intended for transshipment in the United Kingdom the import licence specifically authorises such transshipment. If an import licence for transshipment is not given, shippers who have not got an ordinary United Kingdom import licence will be in a difficult position because their goods may in certain circumstances be seized on the ground that they have been imported without a licence.

*Miscellaneous : Production, Supplies,
Labour, Insurance, Transport,
Patents, Designs, etc., etc.*

In order however, to avoid hardship to shippers at the outset of the proposed new regime, it has been decided that goods despatched from India before July 15 will not require an import licence for transshipment. The scheme will not affect shipment of stores or goods which are carried in ships touching at United Kingdom ports but which will not be unloading there

Supply Department's purchases: Payment of Suppliers' Bills.

Press Note, dated the 8th July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Supply Department:—

With a view to obviating or minimizing delays in the payment of bills against stores purchased through the purchasing organisations of the Supply Department, the Government of India have decided to take certain steps intended to ensure speedier action on the part of the various organisations and officers concerned.

Instructions have been issued for inspection to take place immediately after the goods are tendered for delivery and for inspection certificates to be issued immediately after the inspection is completed. Wherever feasible, arrangements are to be made for the inspection and acceptance of goods at one and the same station, and the inspection staff are to help contractors, wherever such help is necessary, in properly filling in forms.

Suppliers are warned, however, that theirs is the responsibility for promptly bringing to the notice of the local Controller of Supplies or of the Purchase Officer concerned any special difficulties in obtaining wagonspace. Consignees are requested to issue certificates of the receipt of goods with the least possible delay.

As a general rule 90 per cent. of the purchase price is to be paid after inspection and on proof of despatch, and the balance against the consignee's certificates of receipt of goods. This "on account" payment, however, may be varied in individual cases and a higher or a lower percentage may be allowed as may be deemed desirable in the interests of Government.

The above procedure is also to apply to existing contracts in accordance with the merits of the individual cases.

"On account" payments are not to be made in the case of contracts not exceeding Rs. 200 in value or when the stores are to be delivered locally without being transported by rail or sea.

Press Note, dated the 13th July, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Supply Department:—

An order for ambulance stretchers has been placed on a group of sugar mills in India as an experimental measure for utilizing the industry's spare-time productive capacity.

It is well known that when the crushing season is over, the sugar industry in India has an idle period of six months, and that mills generally are well equipped with modern machinery, workshops and technical personnel.

Investigations have been in hand for some time now by the Supply Department as to the possibility of utilizing any available industrial potential in the manufacture of such articles as are the responsibility of the Department, and it has been found that a number of mills are by no means fully occupied. The matter is still being investigated, and as a beginning, the present educational order has been placed.

Over four million articles of clothing were manufactured by the eight clothing factories in India during the month of May last.

The highest figures of output, in their respective order, were of the factories at Bombay, Shahjahanpur, Calcutta and Madras, with just under a million articles each. The Lahore factory produced more than a third of a million, while the factory at Secunderabad exceeded the one hundred thousand mark.

Two branch factories have been opened at Bangalore and Ramgarh—attached to the Madras and Calcutta clothing factories, respectively—for the manufacture of clothing for prisoners of war by the prisoners themselves.

These sub-factories have been housed in tents and temporary buildings at these Camps. The necessary machinery and equipment have been placed in position and production has already started.

Cut garments and necessary items of garniture are being supplied by the parent factories.

Public Collections of Scrap metals.

Press Note, dated the 17th August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Supply Department:—

A misapprehension appears to have arisen in certain quarters that Government wish to discourage public collections of scrap metals as an aid to India's war effort. Actually, quite the contrary is the case. Government are deeply appreciative of the zeal and loyalty that have prompted such a public spirited effort and desire it by all means to continue.

Only, they wish it to be made clear that at present such collections are likely to be of far greater utility if they are offered to the trade instead of to Government themselves. Most of the scrap collected is derived from domestic sources and is of a quality which is unsuited to munitions production; but if it is made available (preferably through organized scrap committees) to the trade, it can be melted down and converted again to civil uses and thereby help to reduce domestic demands for virgin metals. The sale proceeds may, in such cases, accrue to war funds.

Public collections of scrap are thus of double importance: they help to conserve supplies of metals of the country and are a source of substantial benefit to war funds. They have therefore official favour

Production of equipment for the forces.

Press Note, dated the 21st August, 1941, issued by the Government of India in the Defence Department:—

India already produces well over 20,000 different items of stores for the armed forces, and this number is constantly increasing. This process is also being furthered where possible, by making such modifications in army specifications as, without appreciably lowering standards of quality, will enable the existing industries of the country to meet fresh and ever increasing demands.

This policy has been followed steadily by the Defence Department for many years and is not a new problem forced on India by the present war. As a result, great headway has been made in the manufacture of munitions of all types and scientific stores. Armour plate and shell bar, for example, are now indigenous products and machine tools and components of machines in use in the various war industries are also being turned out in India. Scientific stores, including prismatic compasses, binoculars and instrument stands are now being manufactured in this country.

During the last war large quantities of woollen materials such as great coat cloth, khaki serge and flannel shirting for the Army were imported from England, but today India is supplying her entire requirements and a large proportion of the requirements of the troops overseas as the result of gradual post-war establishment of indigenous production. The output of the woollen industry in 1939, indeed, was far short of war requirements, but it was brought to the required level by altering specifications to allow of different manufacturing processes. A typical example was the granting of permission for certain changes in specification which allowed wool and cotton union cloth to be manufactured on cotton machinery; a step which of itself led to an increased output of flannel shirting amounting to 600,000 yards per month.

*Miscellaneous : Production, Supplies,
Labour, Insurance, Transport,
Patents, Designs, etc., etc.*

One of the most successful and striking results of change in specification, from the point of view of Indian industry, is apparent in the manufacture of canvas. Before the war the very large number of articles used in the army and made from canvas were manufactured from flax, but, as 90 per cent. of the world's flax is grown in Russia, it was imperative that a substitute be found. Research and experiments carried out by the Army authorities over a number of years resulted in Indian industry being in a position at the outbreak of the war to undertake the manufacture of waterproof canvas for paulins, khaki canvas for web equipment and jute cotton union canvas for water-holding stores. This industry is so far advanced that, besides supplying India's needs, many millions of yards of these canvases have been exported.

Since the outbreak of the war nearly 500 new articles, in addition to those already being manufactured prior to the war, have either been produced for the first time or their capacity increased. Among these may be mentioned goggles, rubber gauntlets, electrical gloves, crockery and cutlery, enamelware, glassware, tools of all types, lamps and lanterns, bakelite articles, motor engine oils and spare parts, and numerous other essential articles for the services. The manufacture of these articles has been made possible by the continuous process of relating specifications to India's productive capacity carried out by the Defence Department in consultation with Industry and with the Supply Department.

To increase still further the range of stores manufactured in India, sample rooms are being opened in various industrial centres to bring manufacturers more in touch with requirements and to enable them to examine specifications and samples of Army equipment.
